

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen
Stiftung Öffentlichen Rechts

The Rule of Law in the People's Republic of China: Statements, Realities, Insights and New Approaches

University of Göttingen
Organizer: German-Chinese Institute of Law
Co-Organizer: Centre for Modern East Asian Studies

05.10.2016

Time: October 5, 2016 11:00am

Venue: Library of the Institute of International and European Law, Blauer Turm, 13th Floor
Lecture room , Room Nr. 13.122
Platz der Göttinger Sieben 5, 37073 Göttingen

Program, October 5, 2016

11:00 Opening & Welcome

Sarah Eaton (Department of East Asian Studies, Göttingen)
Tobias Stoll (Institute for International and European Law, Göttingen)

*11:30 Katrin Blasek: Rule of Law in China - A comparative approach

12:10 Lunch Break

*13:10 Georg Gesk: Detention-Classifications and Reforms

*13:50 Björn Ahl: Chinese Judicial Reforms as Judicialization

14:30 – 14:50 Discussion & Coffee Break

*14:50 Ling Li: 'Rule of Law' in a Party-State: A Conceptual Interpretive Framework of the Constitutional Reality of China

*15:30 Katja Levy: What do they mean by 'Rule of Law'? A critical analysis of the discourse on the Rule of Law in the PR China under Xi Jinping

16:10 Workshop Wrap-up

18:00 Dinner

Contact:

Peter-Tobias Stoll

Abteilung für Internationales Wirtschaftsrecht und Umweltrecht

Platz der Göttinger Sieben 5

37073 Göttingen

+49 (0) 551 39 4661 (Telefon)

+49 (0) 551 39 4767 (Fax)

intecolaw@gwdg.de (Email)

UNIVERSITY OF GÖTTINGEN
Centre for Modern
East Asian Studies